INTRODUCTION

Till 1990's CSR was understood purely in terms of charity. In the new environment companies have realized that without a healthy community the new business venture cannot prosper. CSR has grown to play a significant and important role in directing and defining the way organizations do business. Social accountability and responsibility to expected particularly from large national and multinational corporations which can be linked in people's minds to various issues.

MEANING

CSR refers to business decision making linked to ethical values, compliance with legal instruments and respect for people, communities and environment.

As per the world business council for sustainable development, 2000 CSR is the continuing commitment by business to ethically and contribute economic development while improving the quality of life of the workforce and their families as well as the local community and society as large.

Commission of European Communities, 2001 defined CSR as "A Concept whereby companies integrate social and environment concerns in their business operations and in their interaction with their stake holders as a voluntary basis."

Thus CSR is a concept whereby organizations consider the interest of society by taking responsibility for the impact of their activities on customers, suppliers, employees, shareholders, communities and other stakeholders, as well as the environment.

CORE ELEMENTS OF CSR

1. Care for all stakeholders.
2. Ethical functioning.
3. Respect for workers Rights and Welfare.
4. Respect for Human Rights.
5. Respect for Environment.
6. Activities for Social and inclusive Development.

Globalization, deregulation, privatization and a redrawing of the lines between state and market have changed the basis on which business houses are expected to contribute to the public good.

THE BASIC DRIVERS OF CSR CONSIST OF:

Values	A value shift has taken place within businesses where they not only feel responsibility for profit earning but also for social and environmental good.
Strategy	Being more socially and environmentally responsibility is important for the strategic development of a company.
Pressure Group	Pressure groups like consumers, media, the state and other public bodies are pressing companies to become socially responsible.

CASE STUDY OF BUSINESS GAIANTS INVOLVED IN CSR.

Research Methodology

Literature review

- Adoption of ISO 14001 standard by Indian Companies, and cursory look on literature on CSR shows that many of the firms report their CSR practices through annual report or websites.
- Karmyog rating of Indian companies is available for best 1000 companies in India.
- Case study of ONGC, Reliance Industries, Larsen and Toubro, NTPC, KRIBHCO, GAIL India Ltd., etc.
- They have brought economic prosperity but are they concerned about the socio-environmental issues?
